Dear Dr Fink,

On behalf of the American Animal Hospital Association, I'd like to congratulate you and your team for successfully achieving accreditation! As a newly accredited practice, you join an elite group of veterinary practices which hold a place among the top 15 percent of small animal hospitals in North America — a mark of distinction that clearly sets you apart from other veterinary practices in your community. We recognize the role each member of your team played in this outstanding accomplishment and share in your excitement and pride in your new accreditation status.

I am pleased to present you with the enclosed accreditation plaque to promote your status as an AAHA-accredited practice. You are encouraged to use the AAHA logo throughout your practice to illustrate your team's commitment to your clients and their pets and dedication to AAHA's high standards of excellence.

AAHA is here to serve you — accredited practices receive ongoing support from our practice accreditation team.
